Delta Medix Urologists Earn National Designation as a Top Performer in Medicine

The Division of Urology at Delta Medix, the largest provider of comprehensive care for the diagnosis and treatment of urologic problems in Northeastern Pennsylvania, has helped Regional Hospital of Scranton earn top honors according to U.S. News & World Report Best Hospitals 2013. The annual report, which releases national, state and regional rankings on hospitals and specialty areas, identified Regional Hospital of Scranton as top performing in urology.

Delta Medix Urologists comprise the Urology Team of Physicians at Regional Hospital of Scranton, providing state of the art urological care in a personalized and compassionate environment. The Delta Medix Urologists are board-certified with specialty training in a number of different aspects of urology.

Our physicians work in concert with other expert health care professionals to provide a multi-specialty approach towards diagnosing and treating patients with such urologic conditions. Special attention is also given to preventative and screening therapies to help maintain a healthy and active lifestyle.
